

UNIFORMS AND IDENTIFICATION

1500

(No. 34 Nov. 1998)

A uniform consists of specific outer garments (including safety boots for Unit 8 and affiliated supervisory employees) which the employee is required to wear exclusively while carrying out the duties and responsibilities of a position. A uniform further includes items that serve to identify the person, agency, function performed, rank, or time in service. For more information see DPA Rule 599.727 - 599.728.
